God's Grandeur

14 June 2015

Sometimes sunsets stop us in our tracks. One moment life is clamouring – the texts are flying, the kids are squabbling, the worries of the day are filling our vision behind our unseeing eyes – and then suddenly we see it. The golds and reds, the streaming light, edging cloud, engulfing us in its glory. Beauty on a scale that lifts both our hearts and our burdens as we are lost for a moment in pure peaceful enjoyment.

Such moments are a good grace of God and a glimpse of His glory. Psalm 8 says:

“O Lord, our Lord,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!
You have set your glory above the heavens.”

A good sunset can be a great antidote to a life that has come to feel mundane, a collection of small and meaningless minutes crammed with empty busy-ness. If God can lift us out of the everyday with the barest hint of His grandeur, how would life be changed if we saw it all the more? Or how would the world be different if everyone saw His glory?
I pray you might know more of His glory this day and every day.

Blessings in Christ,

Sam Bleby
Grace Church Minister

The Grace Anglican Network is rolling out a new database and roster system (Grace Church has already been using it for the last year, and it has been well received). You should have received an email with your Elvanto log in details.

If you did receive the email, please log in, choose a password, check your details are correct, and add a profile picture (which is really helpful for staff!)

If you did not receive an email, it most likely means we don't have your contact details. Please contact office@gracenetWORK.asn.au to check we've got your details.

Prayer focus: Grace Church

Praise God for:

- God's glory and beauty and goodness and the way in which He continues to use us to showcase these to our world;
- God's continued work among migrants through TGIF and Grace Church, and the recent establishment of a mandarin speaking small group; and
- the number of kids whom God has gifted us to have in our community and their growth in the knowledge and love of God.

Pray for:

- Wisdom and leadership for the elders of Grace Church, that we might be gifted by God's Spirit with vision and an ability to lead Grace Church in mission;
- the planning of TGIF for next term - pray that the floodgates might open and that many of the seeds we have planted over the last two years will bear fruit in repentance and faith;
- open doors to the gospel among Grace Church member's friends and families, and boldness to tell out God's glory, beauty and goodness
